

Setting the Scene

Imagine the scene when Herod gave orders to his soldiers to kill all the baby boys aged two years and under.

With a partner, construct the speech he might have made. How would he justify what he was ordering them to do?

Or

With a partner, act out the conversation you think Pontius Pilate might have had with his wife the evening after he washed his hands of Jesus.
