

Marian Feasts

The Catholic Church celebrates the mysteries of Mary's life throughout the liturgical year. Some of the feasts of Mary are 'Solemnities', others are 'Feasts' and yet others are 'Memorials'. Each of these names, or classification of feasts, points to the significance of the mystery of faith that they celebrate.

Work alone or with a partner. Complete the chart below by filling in the names of the Marian feast days opposite the corresponding dates and writing a summary of the event or aspect of Mary's life that is celebrated on that day.

JANUARY 1:

This feast celebrates

JANUARY 6:

This feast celebrates

FEBRUARY 2:

This feast celebrates

FEBRUARY 11:

This feast celebrates

MARCH 25:

This feast celebrates

MAY 31:

This feast celebrates

JULY 16:

This feast celebrates

AUGUST 15:

This feast celebrates

AUGUST 22:

This feast celebrates

SEPTEMBER 8:

This feast celebrates

SECTION B | LESSON 19 | WORKSHEET 1

SEPTEMBER 12:

This feast celebrates

SEPTEMBER 15:

This feast celebrates

SEPTEMBER 24:

This feast celebrates

OCTOBER 7:

This feast celebrates

OCTOBER 8:

This feast celebrates

NOVEMBER 21:

This feast celebrates

DECEMBER 8:

This feast celebrates

DECEMBER 12:

This feast celebrates

Research some of the above feast days and gather images and information relating to them. Then present your findings to the class group.