

SECTION H | LESSON 90 | WORKSHEET 1

Read the parable of the Good Samaritan again in Luke 10:29–37.
Think about the parable in terms of the world you live in today.

Are there situations in your community where people need help and are blatantly ignored?

If there are people who ignore and do not respond to those in need in your community, why do you think this is so?

Are there people who do respond? Why do you think this is so?

Imagine you are trying to recruit volunteers from your school or parish to take part in a local effort to minister with school-age children living in a local shelter for homeless families. How would you motivate them?

Write an outline of a parable that you will use in your presentation.
